

Margaret Moloughney Baxter

1.7 Margaret (Maggie) Moloughney (1850 - 1926)

Fourth daughter (seventh child) of Michael Moloughney and Ellen Murphy. Born May 1850 on the high seas, on board the "JESSIE". The Captain offered to provide free transportation for the rest of her life if she would carry the name Jessie - but her parents decided she should be named Margaret after Margaret (Murphy) Costello, the influence that was leading them from their home in Tipperary to a new life in Nepean Township where the Costellos were already living.

Margaret married Tom Baxter on Aug 13, 1872 (his second marriage - one son, John, by his first marriage to Mary Fox). Thomas Baxter, born 1832 in Marlborough Township, was the son of James Thomas Baxter and Catherine Reilly from County Cavan, Ireland - for more information on the Baxters, see Section 5.0. Tom Baxter at the time of his second marriage was 41 years of age and Margaret 22. They raised a family of eleven on the East-half of Lot #1, Concession #4, Nepean (next to the farm owned by her brother, Dan Moloughney). Her husband Tom Baxter died of blood poisoning and was buried on Nov 4, 1891 in his 61st year, leaving her at 41 with ten children - ages 1 to 18 years. She died Nov 6, 1926, at age 76. Both Tom and Maggie are buried in St. Patrick's cemetery, Fallowfield, Plot #15.

Ellen Mary Baxter

At Ellen Mary's Wedding
to John Kilroe in 1910

Maggie Baxter could not read nor write, and from the age of 41 she was left on her own with such help as her brothers and sisters could give her in the rearing of her ten children. A hard worker, she and her family set an example for the surrounding countryside. The children (including her step-son John) were as follows:
